TOPICS OF THE DAY.

That the Advertiser always takes up the cudgels in behalf of Lucien Young, U. S. N., is natural. It has always been a "boom" paper since Thurston got hold of it.

That the Home Rulers are not working harmoniously is natural. Senator White assisted by Senators J. T. Brown and Kaiue are the natural leaders of the upper House. Mr. Akina, with Prendergast and Mossman should be in control of the lower House. With such men in the lead we have to doubt that a reasonable and intelligent appropriation bill will be passed during the coming week. We think the Republican members will support the men we have referred to in spite of the obstructionists who wish to see the Legislature prorogued without passing an appropriation bill.

A thorough investigation should be made in regard to the case of a new born baby girl being left on the door step of an employee of the Kamehameha Schools. It is the business of the police department of course, but we think the Board of Health and every physician in town should without divulging professional secrets assist in finding out who the unnatural mother of the poor child is. Here is a proper case for the "reformers," but as the child is white, they will probably not act. We can not give space to the ugly rumors in connection with this sad affair.

A rare compliment was paid to Deputy High Sheriff Chillingworth last evening at the Chinese theatre on Liliha street. There was a row and the Deputy was sent for, as he was going to bed, after a long day's work. We blush to say it, but it is a fact that he had neither shirt or other under clothing under his coat and pants when he arrived on the scene of the riot, but his very appearance stopped the riot and a few words from him made a thousand people in the audience shut up and go home. Mr. Chillingworth may be young in years, but that fault will probably be overcome eventually. We felt it, however, when the young official tried to pass his hand on his high collar, and then remembered the way in which he was dressed. We hope the Advertiser cartoonist was not there to sketch the Deputy stopping a riot with only an undershirt on. There are people who think that the duties of the police mean a "soft snap." If the dear people would come down and see the work done by every official in the police department they would find out what is really going on, and learn that from the High Sheriff to the turnkey there is very little leisure or pleasure.

The patrol wagon of course — oh, damn the patrol wagon.

The Last Farewell

The Supreme Court met yesterday morning to pay a last tribute to Paul Neumann, loved and respected by all. The U. S. District Judge, Mr. Estee occupied a seat on the Bench and was visibly affected when the short addresses in the honor of his old friend were delivered.

No speech making was necessary or wanted because in the Hall of Justice there were none who needed to listen to an eulogy over the departed friend whose loss is so deeply felt.

Judge Whiting, one of the most personal intimate friends of Neumann, made a brief address and presented the following resolutions: "Whereas, the Honorable Paul Neumann, the first president of this association, has been removed from our midst by death;

"Resolved, that deeply deploring our loss, we, as an association, do place on record, in affectionate remembrance of our departed friend, the expression of our appreciation of his genial nature and kindly sympathy for all with whom he came in contact, which made him beloved by all men.

"Lawyer, scholar, friend.

"Resolved, that we extend our heartfelt sympathy to the widow and family of Mr. Neumann in their affliction;

"Resolved, that these resolutions be spread on the minutes of the Supreme Court."

Judge Frear said:

"The sentiments that have been passed are, I am sure, common to everyone present. So general are they that it is not necessary for me to add anything at this time. The late Paul Neumann occupied high positions, he was an old member of the bar, was prominent in the life of the community, and was learned and brilliant, but it was not in these things that he attracted attention most, and not for these characteristics that he will live in our memories. He will be remembered chiefly for what he was as a man and a friend, for the large place he filled in the hearts of those who knew him—a place such as is in the power of few to make and keep."

It Was Not Tom Gow.

Territorial Secretary Cooper has filed the following affidavit, which explains itself:

Henry E. Cooper, of Honolulu, Oahu, being first duly sworn, says that he is the Secretary of the Territory of Hawaii; that he has the custody of the original records of naturalization of all persons to whom such papers were granted under the Hawaiian Kingdom; that by virtue of his office he is authorized to issue certified copies of such records of naturalization, and that he does in pursuance of such authority issue certificates of identification attached to such certified copies of persons entitled to the same:

That Yong Kong Hong, Chinese, of Honolulu, Oahu, on or about the 19th day of March, A. D. 1901, personally appeared before me and represented to me that he was one Tom Gow, and that he had previously obtained records of naturalization from the Hawaiian government; that he desired a certified copy of the original record, together with a certified copy of said record of naturalization, and a certificate of identification, which were issued to the said Yong Kong Hong in the name of Tom Gow, under the signature of the affiant and the great seal of the Territory of Hawaii.

Whereas, the truth and fact, the said Tom Gow, to whom the record of naturalization was issued was, so complainant is informed and has reason to believe, dead at the time the said Yong Kong Hong made application for said certified copy, and the said Yong Kong Hong did, so complainant is informed and has reason to believe, falsely impersonate said Tom Gow in obtaining such certified copy and certificate of identity from the affiant as aforesaid, contrary to section 181 of the penal laws of 1897.

(Signed) HENRY E. COOPER.

Paralysis

is sometimes caused by overwork, either mental or physical. There are many other exciting causes, such as exposure to cold, excesses, emotional influences, etc. The approach of the disease is generally gradual. Frequently the first warning is a vague feeling of headache, vertigo and muscular weakness.

Dr. Williams'

Pink Pills for Pale People

restore the nutrition of the nerves and have cured many cases of paralysis when all other remedies and methods of treatment have failed. The record of this remedy entitles it to a thorough trial.

Perhaps there is no man better known in the city of Lawrence, Kansas, than Mr. G. H. Snyder. To a reporter Mr. Snyder related a wonderful story. He said:

"I am now seventy years of age. About three years ago I experienced a coldness or numbness in the feet, then creeping up my legs until it reached my body. I grew very thin in flesh, my appetite was very poor and I did not relish my food. At last I became so bad I was unable to move about. I consulted several distinguished physicians, one telling me that I had locomotor ataxia, another that I had creeping paralysis. I took their medicines but they did me no good and I continued to grow worse.

"One day a friend advised me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. I immediately commenced their use, throwing all other medicines away. Before I had finished my first box I found that they were benefiting me. I used twelve boxes in all and was perfectly cured."

—From the Journal, Lawrence, Kan.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People contain, in a condensed form, all the elements necessary to give new life and richness to the blood and restore shattered nerves. They are an unfailing specific for such diseases as locomotor ataxia, partial paralysis, St. Vitus' dance, sciatica, neuralgia, rheumatism, nervous headache, the after-effects of the grip, palpitation of the heart, pale and sallow complexions, all forms of weakness either in male or female.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are sold by all dealers, or will be sent, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50c. a box or six boxes for $2.50 (they are never sold in bulk or by the 100) by addressing Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.
